"Many thanks for the superb selection of canapes for our launch party. The food was of excellent quality and was certainly very well received by all of our clients and we will not hesitate to use The hamble valley catering company in the future." -

'The yacht catering company has exceeded our expectations with not only the quality of their food and service, but also by their level of flexibility. They are good at understanding the needs of our varied clients, and produce great food that works well in the difficult environment of a yacht'

'Their super meals and high standard of service to the customers is a great additional boost to the Racing, Corporate event and RYA courses we offer. We are always be happy to recommend The yacht catering company' to anyone wishing to use their service'
The yacht catering company, offer the complete catering service, simply order, join the boat and everything is there to enjoy.'

'We can not fault the service offered by The hamble valley catering company

'The only caterer we know that can adapt to all manner or crew needs - excellent!'

'A very reliable and efficient service'

'When organising that 'special event' choosing a catering company that can deliver quality and affordability is one of the hardest decisions. It can make or break the event. We knew with The yacht catering company we were in good hands, a truly professional and friendly service that delivers the best of cuisine'
